

3-Day Motivational Interviewing Intensive

Steven Malcolm Berg-Smith, MS
San Francisco, CA
May 23-25, 2012

Description:

This 3-day intensive workshop will introduce participants to the theory, principles, and skills of motivational interviewing and related motivation-enhancing behavior change approaches. Participants will be guided through a sequence of learning activities to explore and shape counseling practice behavior, and to initiate a process for developing proficiency in motivational interviewing. Learning activities will include: real-life demonstrations, video-tape examples, “real-plays”, case studies, small group exercises, and significant participant practice with feedback. This workshop is appropriate for helping professionals with no prior or minimal to moderate exposure.

Target Audience:

This workshop is appropriate for helping professionals who are in the role of counseling clients/patients to make and sustain healthy behavior changes: physicians, nurses, health educators, care managers, dieticians, social workers, counselors, psychologists, life coaches, clergy, probation/corrections officers, personal trainers, etc.

Objectives:

1. Describe the “spirit” and key principles of Motivational Interviewing (MI).
2. Observe and debrief demonstrations and videotape examples of MI.
3. Demonstrate and practice the interpersonal style and primary skills for evoking intrinsic motivation for healthy behavior change.
4. Develop a personal plan for practicing and incorporating the primary skills and strategies of MI into counseling practice.
